INSTRUCTIONAL MEDIA

- I. The Talbot County Board of Education recognizes that instructional media (including cable television, video tapes, interactive video programs, interactive computer applications, and commercial television) has the potential to greatly enrich the instructional program for Talbot County students.

- II. Instructional media are recognized for their value when used as an integral part of the school curriculum. When using instructional media a teacher will keep in mind that the program should be suitable to the maturity of the students, and that the subject matter should be appropriate to the course of study. To increase the effectiveness of the instructional media, the contents of the program will be integrated into planned units of study.
